RE: Carrie Shubert

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure and great honor to write a letter of recommendation for Carrie Shubert. I have known her in a professional capacity for approximately six years, during which time she has taught classes for me every semester at Glendale Community College. She is currently still teaching for me; the class she offers is titled "Control and Develop Your Psychic Ability."

Carrie is a model employee--capable, knowledgeable, dependable, warm, friendly, and flexible. Not only is she a terrific employee, but, more importantly, her classroom style is stellar. She is down to earth and generous with sharing her own special gifts with her students. Her student evaluations are always excellent. Her performance as a teacher in all areas--planning, preparation and execution are stellar. I can say this with first-hand knowledge as I finally attended her class myself last summer!

She exhibits an enthusiasm with every student that makes them feel like they can learn and excel and that they are important. Her affinity for teaching (and for people) and her enthusiasm for her subject matter make her a natural. I cannot imagine her doing anything but excelling in anything she does!

I guess it is quite apparent that I think highly of Carrie--but it is hard not to give enthusiastic praise to someone who performs as well as she does. (Especially since I deal with people every day who do not perform their jobs with the capability or the zest that Carrie does!)

Please do not miss the opportunity to work with this extremely talented person. If you don't "grab her up" someone else will, and that would be your immense loss.

If I can be of further assistance or give further information on this subject, please do not hesitate to call me at 623-845-3808.

Sincerely yours,

Suzanne Higgins, Coordinator
Center for Community Education
